SEPTEMBER 2015

THIS IS A FREE NEWSLETTER AND DOES NOT INDICATE MEMBERSHIP STATUS

THE START OF AUTUMN

As the Fall season begins, ensure to take in every moment. Root on your Mountaineer Football Team as they take on some tough Big 12 teams this season! Also, don't forget our fantastic events we have planned for you this Autumn season!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Next month on October 17 we head on over to Mylan Park to enjoy Rick K and The Allnighters! Mark your calendars for November 20th because you surely won't want to miss an elegant Light Up the Night event on the Gateway Clipper! We will then end our 2015 calendar year with a wreath making workshop at Prickett's Fort on December 5th. If you're interested in one or all of these events, details and costs are further explained in this newsletter!

WELCOME TO JOSEPH HALLEY

The Club wishes a warm welcome to Joseph Halley, our new student worker for this semester. In his fifth year at WVU, Joe is majoring in Civil Engineering and is currently a cadet in the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) at WVU. Born & raised near Harrisburg, PA, he is a third generation Mountaineer! After graduating in May, 2016, Joe plans on becoming a commissioned officer and work as a civil engineer in the US Air Force. His hobbies include skiing, hunting, gardening, and golfing.

NEW WEBSITE COMING

The new University Club website is almost ready for us to work with. It is more modern and in compliance with WVU Branding. It also include some new bells & whistles we think you'll enjoy—more pictures and links to fillable forms.

The October Mountain Explorer Dinner Train excursion has been cancelled due to non-availability of tickets.

Rick K and The Allnighters Saturday, October 17th

Considered America's, "Most Exciting Show Band", Rick K and the Allnighters travel to the Hazel & J.W. Ruby Community Center at Mylan Park on October 17, 2015. This band does it all as they take you through a musical journey from the Fabulous Fifties to the Disco Nights of the 1970's. Why Stop there? This phenomenal talent takes you through some great musical styles the decades have to offer. This special event is sponsored by the Foundation of Mon General Hospital, and is by reservation only. Take a seat at our table, bring your own food & beverages, and enjoy a fantastic night! See ya there!

Light Up the Night hosted by the Gateway Clipper Fleet Friday, November 20th

There is nothing better than kicking off the holiday season with a dining riverboat tour in the great city of Pittsburgh! Bring along your family, your friends, or that special someone that will make this evening remarkable! We will depart from the Ramada Inn and make our way over to the boarding dock. Once we set sail, the night is yours! More on page 3.

You can dance to the rhythmic beats the fleet's DJ has to offer, enjoy the signature Captain's Dinner buffet, or simply gaze upon the Pittsburgh skyline as you sail the Three Rivers. There will be nothing like witnessing this "Light Up the Night" event. Mark your calendars now and don't miss this unbelievable night of fun and memories!

If you are interested in attending any of the events featured in this month's newsletter, please fill out the: University Club Reservation Form on pages 4, 5, & 6.

Wreath Workshop Saturday, December 5th

As the holiday season approaches, consider doing something fun with your family or friends. We're heading down to Fort Prickett's State Park on December 5th to learn how to make our own decorative wreath! Instructors from the Marion County Master Gardeners will show you how to make the perfect wreath for your home. If you can, bring a pair of gloves, pruners, and wire cutters. Once you're done, take it home and put your masterpiece on display!
